The Board must at all times act honestly, fairly and diligently in all respects in accordance with the law applicable to the Company.

The Board will at all times act in accordance with all relevant Company policies.

Each of the Directors, when representing the Company, must act in the best interests of shareholders of the Company and in the best interests of the Company as a whole.

3. RESPONSIBILITY OF THE BOARD

The Board is collectively responsible for promoting the success of the Company by:

- (a) supervising the Company's framework of control and accountability systems to enable risk to be assessed and managed, which includes but is not limited to 3(b) to 3(m) below inclusive;

The Board must convene regular meetings with such frequency as is sufficient to appropriately discharge its responsibilities.

4. BOARD COMPOSITION AND SKILLS

The Board will be of such size and competence necessary to understand properly and deal with the current and emerging issues of the business of the Company.

Where practical, the Board aims to comprise a majority of non-executive Directors who are considered by the Board to be independent, but may depart from this objective if the chosen composition of the Board at given point in time is considered to be in the best interests of the Company and the shareholders as a whole notwithstanding that majority is not considered to be independent. The Board considers that, at this point in time, the composition of the Board is in the best interests of the Company and the Board is of the view that it is able to act in the best interests of the entity notwithstanding that there is not a majority of independent non-executive Directors.

The Board aims to comprise Directors with a diverse range of skills and experience that align with the strategic objectives of the Company from time to time. The Company views the following as some of the key areas of skills and experience that the Board as a whole should possess:

- (a) industry and geographical experience;
- (b) technical expertise;
- (c) listed company experience;
- (d) legal and regulatory knowledge;
- (e) knowledge and awareness of human resources and health, safety and environment and social responsibility; and
- (f) project development experience.

The Board will consider and communicate to shareholders the preferred mix of skills and experience from time to time as determined by the Company's operational and strategic objectives.

5. CRITERIA FOR ASSESSING INDEPENDENCE OF DIRECTORS

In determining whether or not the Directors are independent, the Board applies as a benchmark the criteria as set out in the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (Independence Criteria).

The Board may consider a Director to be independent notwithstanding that the Director does not strictly meet all of the independence criteria, in which case the Board will report on the reasons for its conclusion to its shareholders in its annual Corporate Governance Statement.

The Board will regularly assess whether each non-executive Director is independent and each non-executive Director must provide to the Board all information relevant to his or her assessment in this regard.

6. CHAIRPERSON

The Board will appoint one of its members to be the Chairperson.

The Chairperson should be an independent, non-executive Director unless the Board determines that an alternative arrangement is in the best interests of the Company at that time.

The Chairperson is responsible for leading the Board, facilitating the effective contribution of all Directors and promoting constructive relations between Directors and between the Board and management. The Chairperson is also responsible for setting the Board's agenda and ensuring that adequate time is available for discussion of all agenda items, in particular strategic issues.

7. COMPANY SECRETARY

The Company Secretary of the Company is directly accountable to the Board through the Chairperson on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board.

The role of the Company Secretary includes:

- (a) advising the Board on governance matters;
- (b) monitoring that Board policy and procedures are followed;
- (c) coordinating the timely completion and dispatch of Board papers;
- (d) ensuring that the business at Board meetings is accurately captured in the minutes; and
- (e) helping to organise and facilitate the induction and professional development of Directors.

Each director should be able to communicate directly with the Company Secretary and vice versa.

The Board has responsibility for making or approving a decision to appoint or remove the Company Secretary.

8. ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITY OF MANAGEMENT

The role of management is to support the Board (or, in the instance of the appointment of a Managing Director or Chief Executive Officer (or equivalent), that person) and implement the running of the general operations and financial business of the Company, in accordance with the delegated authority of the Board.

9. INDEPENDENT ADVICE

Each Director's letter of appointment (or, in the case of executive directors, service agreement) should entitle that Director to seek independent professional advice at the expense of the Company. The letter of appointment (or service agreement) should set out the terms on which the advice may be obtained.

10. COMMITTEES AND CHARTERS

The Board may delegate its functions and responsibilities from time to time depending on the size, complexity, ownership structure, the respective skills and composition of the Board, and the requirements of the ASX Listing Rules through the establishment of Board sub-committees. To the extent the Board considers that no formal sub-committees are required, the Board will at a minimum convene from time to time as appropriate or required under the following Charters to ensure it deals with the matters that would otherwise be dealt with by separate committees:

- (a) Audit & Risk Committee Charter;
- (b) Nomination Committee Charter; and
- (c) Remuneration Committee Charter.

ANTI-BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

Bribery can be described as the giving to or receiving by any person of anything of value (usually money, a gift, loan, reward, favour, commission or entertainment), as an improper inducement or reward for obtaining business or any other benefit. Bribery can take place in the public sector (e.g. bribing a public official) or private sector (e.g. bribing the employee of a customer). Bribery can also take place where an improper payment is made by or through a third party. Bribes and kickbacks can therefore include, but are not limited to:

- (a) gifts and excessive or inappropriate entertainment, hospitality, travel and accommodation expenses;
- (b) payments, whether by employees or business partners such as agents or consultants;
- (c) other 'favours' provided to public officials or customers, such as engaging a company owned by a public official or customer's family; and
- (d) the uncompensated use of company services, facilities or property.

Bribery is a serious criminal offence and can damage the Company's reputation and standing in the community.

2. SCOPE

This Policy applies to all employees, executive management, consultants, joint venture partners (where they agree to be bound by the Policy) as well as temporary and contract staff (including subcontractors) (Representatives).

Representatives must ensure that they do not become involved, in any way, in the payment of bribes or kickbacks, whether in the public or commercial sector. This Policy sets out the minimum standards to which all Representatives of the Company must adhere to at all times.

3. OBJECTIVE

The Company has a zero-tolerance approach to bribery and corruption and is committed to acting professionally, fairly and with integrity in all business dealings.

The objective of this Policy is to:

- (a) set out the responsibilities in observing and upholding the Company's position on bribery and corruption;
- (b) further reinforce the Company's values as set out in its Code of Conduct; and
- (c) provide information and guidance to those working for the Company on how to recognise and deal with bribery and corruption issues.

4. ANTI-BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION POLICY

4.1 Policy details

No Representative of the Company is permitted to pay, offer, accept or receive a bribe in any form. A Representative must never:

- (a) offer, pay or give anything of value to a public official in order to obtain business or anything of benefit to the Company. 'Public official' should be understood very broadly, and this means anyone paid directly or indirectly by the government or performing a public function, including officials of state-owned enterprises and public international organisations;

- (b) attempt to induce a public official, whether local or foreign, to do something illegal or unethical;
- (c) pay any person when you know, or have reason to suspect, that all or part of the payment may be channelled to a public official. You should therefore be careful when selecting third parties, such as agents, contractors, subcontractors and consultants;
- (d) offer or receive anything of value as a 'quid pro quo' in relation to obtaining business or awarding contracts. Bribery of 'public officials' is a serious matter, but bribery of those working in the private sector is also illegal and contrary to the Company's Code of Conduct;
- (e) establish an unrecorded fund for any purpose;
- (f) otherwise use illegal or improper means (including bribes, favours, blackmail, financial payments, inducements, secret commissions or other rewards) to influence the actions of others; or offering anything of value when you know it would be contrary to the rules of the recipient's organisation for the recipient to accept it;
- (g) make a false or misleading entry in the Company books or financial records;
- (h) act as an intermediary for a third party in the solicitation, acceptance, payment or offer of a bribe or kickback;
- (i) so-called 'facilitation' payments are prohibited. Such payments should not be made to public officials, even if they are nominal in amount and/or common in a particular country;
- (j) do anything to induce, assist or permit someone else to violate these rules; and
- (k) ignore, or fail to report, any suggestion of a bribe.

As well as complying with the specific prohibitions in this Policy, Representatives must exercise common sense and judgement in assessing whether any arrangement could be perceived to be corrupt or otherwise inappropriate.

4.2 Agents and Intermediaries

- (a) Representatives should not hire an agent, consultant or other intermediary if they have reason to suspect that they will pay bribes on behalf of the Company's behalf.
- (b) Representatives should seek to ensure that any third parties that are hired will not make, offer, solicit or receive improper payments on behalf of the Company. All fees and expenses paid to third parties should represent appropriate and justifiable remuneration for legitimate services to be provided and should be paid directly to the third party. Accurate financial records of all payments must be kept
- (c) All business units should adopt appropriate procedures directed towards ensuring that their arrangements with third parties do not expose them to noncompliance with this Policy. Such procedures should assist Representatives in determining whether particular third parties present a corruption risk and, if so, what steps should be taken to address that risk. This may include, in particular, cases where a third party is engaged to act on behalf the Company:
 - (i) to solicit new business;
 - (ii) to interact with public officials; or
 - (iii) In other high risk situations.
- (d) Representatives must also be aware of factors which suggest the third party may pose a high corruption risk and consult with their line managers to assess whether there is a need for enhanced due diligence and monitoring, or whether a proposed relationship should not proceed.

4.3 Gifts, entertainment and hospitality

The Company prohibits the offering of acceptance of gifts, entertainment or hospitality in circumstances which would be considered to give rise to undue influence. All Representatives must notify the Company Secretary or Chief Executive Officer of any gifts and/or benefits, either offered or accepted and valued at AUD$500.00 or more, to safeguard and make transparent their relationships and dealings with third parties.

4.4 Charitable and political donations

- (a) The Company does not make political donations or payments.
- (b) Charitable donations can in some circumstances be used as a disguise for bribery, e.g. where a donation is provided to a 'charity' which is controlled by a public official who is in a position to make decisions affecting the Company. Therefore, whilst the Company supports community outreach and charitable work, recipients must be subject to a suitable due diligence and approval process in all circumstances. It must be clear who the actual recipient of the donation is and for whose benefit the donation is ultimately made.

4.5 Reporting bribery and suspicious activity

- (a) If you become aware of any actual or suspected breach of this Policy or if you are ever offered any bribe or kickback, you must report this to the Authorised Officer (see Schedule 1). Processes are in place to ensure that such complaints are investigated and appropriate action taken. The Company will not permit retaliation of any kind against any Representative for making good faith reports about actual or suspected violations of this Policy. These processes apply to all Representatives of the Company
- (b) Whistleblowing reports should be made in accordance with the Company's Whistleblower Protection Policy. Matters which may be reported to the Authorised Officers include (but are not limited to):
 - (i) conduct which is inconsistent with the Company stated vision, its Code of Conduct, policies and procedures;
 - (ii) violation of law;
 - (iii) abuse of company resources and assets;
 - (iv) danger to health and safety of any individual;
 - (v) deliberate concealment of information;
 - (vi) fraud, corruption, bribery, extortion and theft;
 - (vii) financial misconduct;
 - (viii) unfair discrimination; and attempt to suppress or conceal information relating to any of the above.
- (c) The Company expects all Representatives whether full-time, part-time or temporary acting in good faith to report unethical or fraudulent conduct without fear or favour
- (d) Customers and suppliers are also encouraged to report unethical and fraudulent activities and (in the case of customers) activities that could constitute, or could be perceived to be, collusion or price fixing.
- (e) Representatives have an obligation to report suspected or potential breaches of this Policy to the Authorised Officer. All information and reports to an Authorised Officer will be dealt with in a responsible and sensitive manner.

5. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- 5.1 It is the responsibility of all Representatives to know and adhere to this Policy
- 5.2 The Board have direct responsibility for the Policy, for maintaining it and for providing advice and guidance on its implementation.
- 5.3 All business unit managers are directly responsible for implementing the Policy within their business areas, and for adherence by their staff
- 5.4 The Board must ensure that managers and employees likely to be exposed to bribery and corruption are trained to recognise and deal with such conduct in accordance with this Policy.

6. COMPLIANCE

- 6.1 Representatives are required to familiarise and fully comply with this Policy
- 6.2 Any Representative who fails to comply with the provisions as set out above or any amendment thereto, may be subject to appropriate disciplinary or legal action
- 6.3 the Company's policies, standards, procedures and guidelines comply with legal, regulatory and statutory requirements.
- 6.4 The Board is responsible for reviewing this Policy to determine its appropriateness to the needs of the Company from time to time and will review the policy at least annually.
- 6.5 This Policy may be amended from time to time in the sole discretion of the Company.

7. REVIEW

This Policy must be reviewed by the Board at least every two years to ensure it is operating effectively. Any recommended changes must be approved by the Board or its designated committee.

The Company Secretary is authorised to make administrative and non-material amendments to this Policy provided that such amendments are notified to the Board or its designated committee at or before its next meeting.

The Company will ensure any updates to this policy, its processes and procedures following a review are disseminated to and accessible by individuals covered by this Policy.

This policy applies to all Directors, officers, employees and consultants of the Company.

1.2 Matters that must be disclosed

The Corporations Act and the ASX Listing Rules require the Company, as a company listed on the ASX, to comply with the continuous disclosure obligations in the ASX Listing Rules.

ASX Listing Rule 3.1 requires that the Company immediately disclose to the market any information of which the Company becomes aware, concerning the Company that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of the Company's securities. This type of information is referred to as 'price sensitive' information.

The Company becomes aware of information if any of its Directors or executive officers has, or ought reasonably to have, come into possession of the information in the course of the performance of his or her duties as a Director or executive officer of the Company.

Disclosure of price sensitive information is not required while the following paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) are satisfied:

- (a) a reasonable person would not expect the information to be disclosed;
- (b) the information is confidential and ASX has not formed the view that the information has ceased to be confidential; and
- (c) one or more of the following applies:
 - (i) it would be a breach of a law to disclose the information;
 - (ii) the information concerns an incomplete proposal or negotiation;
 - (iii) the information comprises matters of supposition or is insufficiently definite to warrant disclosure;
 - (iv) the information is generated for the internal management purposes of the Company; or
 - (v) the information is a trade secret.

If the ASX considers that there is, or is likely to be, a false market in the Company's securities and asks the Company to give it information to correct or prevent a false market, the Company must give the ASX the information needed to correct or prevent the false market.

1.3 Internal disclosure procedure

- (a) Disclosure Officer
Means an individual designated by the Board from time to time to administer this policy and in the absence of a specific appointment shall be the Company Secretary.
- (b) Responsibilities of the Disclosure Officer

New World expects and encourages individuals who become aware on reasonable grounds of circumstances of Reportable Conduct involving New World to initiate disclosure under this Policy.

You may make disclosure under this Policy if you have reasonable grounds to suspect that a New World director, officer, employee, contractor, supplier, tenderer or a related person of New World has engaged in conduct that is related to the misconduct or an improper state of affairs or circumstances implicating New World.

Reasonable grounds means that a reasonable person in your same position would suspect the information indicates that person involved with New World has engaged in conduct that is related to misconduct, an improper state of affairs or a breach of the law. A mere allegation with no supporting information is not likely to be considered as reasonable grounds, however a Whistleblower does not need to prove their allegations and can still qualify for protection even if their disclosure turns out to be incorrect.

Reportable Conduct includes behaviour or conduct that constitutes:

- (a) an offence against, or a contravention of, the Corporations Legislation;

¹ As at 30 September 2021, there are no Regulations in place in relation to the Australian Whistleblower Laws.

- (b) an offence against any other law of the Commonwealth that is punishable by imprisonment for a period of 12 months or more;
- (c) dishonest, fraudulent, or corrupt behaviour including insider trading, insolvent trading, and failure to comply with statutory accounting and reporting requirements;
- (d) illegal activities including breaches of state and federal criminal and/or civil legislation, harassment or intimidation, money laundering offences, terrorism financing, falsification of accounts and exploitation of legal loopholes;

- (g) behaviour that endangers or may endanger the health and safety of individuals such as the presence of improper work practices;
- (h) unlawful harassment, coercion, discrimination, victimisation or bullying that does not form part of a work-related grievance excluded under this Policy;
- (i) a danger to the public or the financial system, including conduct that indicates a significant risk to public safety or the stability of those systems even if it does not involve a breach of a particular law; and
- (j) a matter prescribed by the Regulations. ²

4.2 Personal work-related grievances

Personal work-related grievances relate to circumstances related to your employment that tend to have implications for you personally but do not have any significant implications for New World or relate to conduct that would qualify as Reportable Conduct.

Personal work-related grievances should be raised with your manager or supervisor at first instance however, such grievances may not be protected under this Policy. For example, disclosing an interpersonal conflict or workplace decisions that do not involve a breach of workplace laws are unlikely to be protected under this Policy. On the other hand, personal work-related grievances will be protected under this Policy if:

- (a) it includes information about misconduct, or information about misconduct includes or is accompanied by a personal work-related grievance (i.e. mixed disclosure);
- (b) the Whistleblower seeks legal advice or representation about the operation of this Policy and the Whistleblower protections under the Australian Whistleblower Laws;

Any deliberate false reporting of purported Protected Disclosures will not qualify for protection under this Policy and will be treated as a serious disciplinary matter.

² As at 30 September 2021 there are no Regulations in place in relation to the Australian Whistleblower Laws.

5. DISCLOSURE OF REPORTABLE CONDUCT: MAKING A REPORT

5.1 Avenues for reporting

There are several avenues for you to make disclosure if you become aware of any behaviour that you consider on reasonable grounds to be Reportable Conduct under this Policy. In order to rely upon the whistleblower protections, you must make a disclosure directly to an Eligible Recipient as set out in this section. It is the responsibility of the Whistleblower to ensure that any Reportable Conduct is made to a person or party that satisfies the requirements of an Eligible Recipient.

A Whistleblower qualifies for protection under this Policy and the Australian Whistleblower Law from the time they make the disclosure, regardless of whether the Whistleblower or the Eligible Recipient is aware that the disclosure qualifies for protection.

In order to identify and address wrongdoing as early as possible, New World encourages Whistleblowers to discuss and report your concerns to your direct manager or supervisor. If you feel unable to raise the Reportable Conduct with your direct manager or supervisor, you are entitled to discuss and report your concerns to other Eligible Recipients.

5.2 Remaining anonymous

Whistleblowers always have the option to remain anonymous when making disclosure to any of the Eligible Recipients and will be subject to the protections of section 7 of this Policy.

If a disclosure comes from an email address from which the person's identity cannot be determined, and the discloser does not identify themselves in the email, it will still be treated as an anonymous disclosure. While the Company will not investigate the identity of a Whistleblower of an anonymous Protected Disclosure, it is the Whistleblower's obligation to manage their anonymity in submitting a Protected Disclosure anonymously. Neither the Company, its officers or employees nor the Authorised Protected Disclosure Officer shall be liable if the Whistleblower's identity is, or becomes, readily ascertainable.

If a Whistleblower chooses to disclose Reportable Conduct anonymously, this may hinder the ability of the Company to fully investigate the matter. Accordingly, the Company encourages Whistleblowers to provide contact details to assist in any investigation into the matter.

- (e) handle the disclosure and any investigation confidentially, when it is practical and appropriate.

New World will endeavour to investigate all disclosures raised under this Policy in a thorough, objective, fair and independent manner, having regard to the nature of the alleged Reportable Conduct however New World acknowledges that there may be practical limitations where the Whistleblower does not disclose their identity. Where the report has been made anonymously, New World will investigate based on the information provided.

The nature of the investigation report (and whether it will be available to the discloser) will be assessed on a case-by-case basis according to the nature and circumstances of the allegation.

Where appropriate, the Whistleblower will be advised on the progress of the report and investigation. With your consent New World may also allocate a support person for you within the organisation. New World strongly enforces the protections outlined in section 7 below.

During the course of the investigation, management will determine whether to stand down the person against whom the allegations have been made until the issue is resolved.

Each disclosure will be acknowledged within a reasonable period after received provided the discloser can be contacted.

New World endeavours to provide each Whistleblower with updates at various stages of the investigation process but will do so on an ad hoc basis.

6.3 Record keeping and information sharing procedures

To ensure confidentiality in accordance with section 7.2 below, New World has implemented record keeping and information sharing procedures to ensure:

- (a) all paper and electronic documents and other materials relating to the disclosures and investigations (if any) are stored securely;
- (b) all information relating to a disclosure or investigation (if any) can only be accessed by those directly involved in managing and investigating;

- (d) communication and documents relating to an investigation are not sent to an email address or printer that can be accessed by other staff.

The unauthorised release of information without the Whistleblower's consent to any person not involved in the investigation (other than the Board) is a breach of this Policy, subject to any requirements of applicable law.

7. COMPANY SUPPORT AND FAIR TREATMENT OF EMPLOYEES

Whistleblowers that make Protected Disclosure must not be personally disadvantaged by dismissal, demotion, any form of harassment, discrimination or current or future bias or unfavourable treatment as a result of submitting a Protected Disclosure.

If a Whistleblower is subjected to unfavourable treatment as a result of submitting a Protected Disclosure, the Whistleblower should inform an Authorised Protected Disclosure Officer immediately.

7.1 Protection against detrimental conduct and/or victimisation

In accordance with our Code of Conduct, New World is committed to ensuring you are protected against any detrimental conduct in your employment or relationship with the company. However, New World retains the ability to raise matters outside of the disclosure made by the Whistleblower that arise in the ordinary course of their employment or engagement. For example, ordinary performance reviews/management or unrelated misconduct concerns.

A Whistleblower is entitled to seek compensation and other remedies through the courts if they suffer loss, damage or injury because of their Protected Disclosure and New World failed to take reasonable precautions and exercise due diligence to prevent the detrimental conduct. New World encourages Whistleblowers to seek independent legal advice first.

7.2 Protection of your identity and confidentiality

Information received from the Whistleblower (or information that could lead to identification of the Whistleblower) will be treated strictly as confidential and will not be shared unless the Whistleblower has provided consent (in writing), New World is required or compelled by law to do so or it is appropriate to disclose the information to a regulator under legislation.

New World will ensure that, where it is required to investigate a disclosure, it will take reasonable steps to reduce the risk of revealing the identity of the Whistleblower. Any disclosure of information that may lead to the identity of the Whistleblower being disclosed will be made on a strict confidential basis.

All files, investigations and disclosures will be retained in a secure location. Where this information is unauthorised and released to persons not directly involved, it will be a breach of this Policy.

Breaches of confidentiality or release of information under this Policy will be taken extremely seriously and will be subject to the disciplinary processes of New World. Further, any individual or entity who discloses the identity of a Whistleblower who has elected to remain anonymous faces criminal penalties, civil penalties as well as disciplinary proceedings. To lodge a complaint about a breach of confidentiality, a Whistleblower may contact the Company Secretary on +61 8 9226 1356 or contact an outside regulator, such as ASIC, APRA or the ATO.

Further protections are provided under the Australian Whistleblower Laws subject to certain conditions being met.

Disclosure, the Whistleblower's identity or information likely to lead to identification of the Whistleblower.

7.5 Protections do not extend to the Whistleblower's conduct
